

A Note From Your Editor

I HAVE NOT BEEN VERY GOOD AT RELAYING INFO TO YOU OVER THIS PAST MONTH. I CAN'T BELIEVE HOW THE SHINGLES HAVE TAKEN OVER MY LIFE. HOPEFULLY I AM NOW ON THE ROAD TO RECOVERY AND WON'T BE CONSTANTLY UNDER MEDICATION THAT SAPS MY ENERGY. THANKS TO ALL OF YOU WHO HAVE SENT NOTES. I HOPE I HAVEN'T MISSED ANYTHING THAT WAS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE BREEZE. IF I'VE MISSED ANYTHING YOU'VE SENT ME, PLEASE LET ME KNOW SO THAT I MAY CORRECT IT. AND THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR THE PERSONAL INFO THAT I WAS ABLE TO INCLUDE FOR OUR READERS. BARB

It's Official

The official paperwork removing the lien on South Winds Mobile Homeowners Association, Inc. has been received. It was recorded in the County Clerk's Office on May 21, 2013. Congratulations and Amen.

How I spent my summer vacation

As I have asked for news from residents in the past and have had little response, I must thank those of you who have responded. I do believe our readers will enjoy your input.

SENT BY DON (LANGLOIS) 6/19

SHIRLEY FINALLY MADE THE DECISION TO HAVE HER KNEE DONE. SHE WENT IN TUESDAY AND WILL BE IN THE HOSPITAL FOR THREE DAYS, COMING HOME ON FRIDAY. SHE HAS A GREAT DOCTOR WHO HAS DONE HUNDREDS OF KNEES. EVERYONE UP HERE HAS HAD SUCCESS WITH HIS ORTHO SURGERY BUT AS ANYONE WHO HAS GONE THROUGH IT WILL TELL YOU IT IS NO PICNIC! JANET AND KAREN TOOK OFF WORK AND CAME UP TO BE WITH HER IN THE HOSPITAL. WITH THE PREP, SURGERY AND RECOVERY, IT WAS A LONG DAY!

SHE CAME OUT OF IT WELL BUT WAS REALLY OUT OF IT AFTERWARDS. TODAY WAS MUCH BETTER, HAD HER FIRST FOOD IN ABOUT 30 HOURS. SHE FELT A BIT BETTER UNTIL SHE HAD TO TAKE THAT FIRST STEP! I LEFT BEFORE THE AFTERNOON THERAPY BUT I AM SURE IT WASN'T FUN!!!!

News? hmmm spent a few days in Grand Rapids, Michigan with daughter Robin and family. Just in time for Mother's Day. The family includes "Gizmo", "Nina" (fun dogs to watch!!! their antics). They were "rescue dogs" and it took some time for Nina to get over her fearfulness. Neither one wants to be photographed! They LOVE snuggling up to their family members when sitting on the sofa! Though I don't approve, how can I deny them that pleasure!!! My bed??? Well, suffice it to say I have to keep bed covered with my suitcases, computer case, and whatever else I can find!! Needless to say, I keep my bedroom door closed at night when I am sleeping! And, that bed gets made up the minute I get out of it in the morning, luggage replaced, etc.

"I am now a snowbird after 10 yrs. of being a fulltime resident of SW. I am not ready to give up SW yet in spite of some rumors you heard, but compromised with my family by having a condo closer to them in NC for the summer. Soon as you hit your 80's they think you are 'old' need to be taken care of - so I humor them and secretly enjoy their concern.

What an experience to buy another home, furnish it, from silverware to beds, couches, linens, etc. At my age. I thought those days were over. Wrong! Love being in the mountains - love being close to the family - making new friends - New experiences with bears coming to the family's front door, copperhead snakes being killed by my son in his yard (a 1/2 miles from me), woodchucks coming up my driveway, – thunder and lightning like I could never imagine. I thought the thunder in SW was bad, but wow – ready to hide under the bed when it starts here in the mountains. It must echo here. LOL. But the beauty of the mountains, some wonderful people with their Southern accents sometimes so thick I can hardly understand them. They love and respect “age”. Grinning when a huge 6’3” 250 lb. man rushes to open the door for you saying ‘how ya ‘all today mam”, remembering I use to be a 100% northerner -

So now I miss SW and friends in the summer and miss the family and new friends in NC during the winter, but it sure is a good life."

Well, we are all moving to Brighton, Michigan sometime this summer. The kids and I found this wonderful house, and closing date will be July 10. They are in the process of selling their home here in Ohio. Traci and I drove to Michigan (with the puppies, ha) and looked two days straight while there and they went with us and peed on every tree and yard wherever we stopped!

While there, my Daughter Kellie and Bruce had a birthday party for me, #79-sheesh! There were 20 or more of the family and a few friends there. It was great. My new little Great Grandson, Aaron, threw up in the pocket of my new purple shirt, ha. I had to completely change clothes.

We are all pretty much busy here throwing/doing Craig's List/making sure the house is clean/neat at all times. Another sheesh.

Getting Well and, Grateful

Thanks so much for all the cards and best wishes after my emergency surgery. I am mending slowly and trying hard to take it easy with the lifting. I do miss cutting my grass, gardening, etc. but will get more quilting done!

Southwinds is definitely a special place because of the caring people there. Thanks so much. Bonnie Norton

Our Condolences

Birdie Hutter (182), age 87, passed away June 18, 2013 at her Sarasota residence.

We have also learned of the death of Donald Grant (114).

The Olive Garden at the Landings will welcome our MOPS diners on July 10, 2013. The luncheon will be at 11:30 a.m. There is a signup sheet on the bulletin board. Questions – Jerry Kochan

Only police officers get a better deal on coffee and donuts. Join your neighbors at the Saturday coffee hours on July 6 and July 20 in the Rec Hall. Susan and Bill Murray are hosting this month.

My Mother Taught Me

My mother taught me TO APPRECIATE A JOB WELL DONE. "If you are going to kill each other, do it outside I just finished cleaning."

My mother taught me RELIGION. "You better pray that comes out of the carpet."

My mother taught me LOGIC. "Because I said so, that's why."

My mother taught me about ANTICIPATION. "Just wait until we get home."

My mother taught me ESP. "Put your sweater on; don't you think I know when you're cold?"

My mother taught me JUSTICE. One day you'll have kids and I hope they turn out just like you."
