ENJOYING A MOPS LUNCHEON

FALL-PROOF YOUR HOME

THIRD INSTALLMENT:

The Stairs:

Most staircases only have one secure handrail, add a second one. Handrails on both sides will keep you balanced.

Light the top and the bottom of the stairs, ideally with overhead lights. A light switch at the top and the bottom keeps you prepared no matter which direction you're going.

Keep the stairs clutter free.

Add strips of contrasting colored tape to help you visualize your stairs better. Pick a color that will stand out against the color of the stairs. Put the tape on the top and over the edge of each step.

Do things for people not because of who they are or what they do in return but because of who you are.

Stay tuned for information regarding the Labor event being planned by Joyce Johnson and Myrtle Lawrence.
